

COURTNEY JENKINS.

AFTER AN ILLNESS OF LONG DURATION HE DIES PEACEFULLY.

Having Lived a True Man and Brave Soldier He Was Ready to Meet His End.

Mr. Courtney Jenkins died at his home, No. 1 West Cary street, yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, after an illness of long duration, but the conclusion of which was quite sudden.

He was fifty-one years of age and a Marylander by birth and of a distinguished family. He was one of those adventurous youths of Baltimore who in April, 1861, resisted the passage of the Massachusetts regiment through that city en route to Washington.

Mr. Jenkins enlisted in Company B, Twenty-second Virginia Infantry, and was present at the battle of Antietam, where he was severely wounded. He was also present at the battle of Gettysburg, where he was again wounded.

After being discharged from the army on account of ill health the deceased resided in the city of Baltimore, where he was employed in the mercantile business.

On the 21st of November, 1883, at Wilkes, N. C., Mr. Jenkins was married to Miss Frances Lennox Trevell, who, with four children, survives.

The deceased was educated at Loyola College, Baltimore, and distinguished himself as a brilliant scholar. He was a member of the Maryland Historical Society.

Mr. Jenkins enjoyed the love and confidence of his friends and family. He was a true man and a brave soldier, and his death is a great loss to his family and to the community.

Funeral services will be held at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning at the residence of Mr. Jenkins, No. 1 West Cary street.

The interment will take place at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning at the cemetery of the deceased, the union as a mark of respect.

BY HIS OWN HAND.

MR. LEWIS GRIFIN FIRES THE SHOT THAT PRODUCES HIS DEATH.

Several Notes Left, But None Explain the Cause—He Was Soon to Have Been Married.

No one heard the report of the pistol shot that suddenly terminated the life of Mr. Lewis Griffin some time between 11 o'clock and midnight on Sunday night and daylight yesterday morning.

Like him no one except his mother knew the cause that led to the committal of the rash act nor the anguish suffered before it was performed.

Mr. Griffin was a successful young tobaccoist of this city, had for some time occupied a suite of rooms on the second floor of the building known as the "Old House," No. 11 North Sixth street, between Main and Franklin.

He was a young man, about 30 years of age, and was well known in the community.
